

SIX GAMES THIS WEEK

Locals Greatly Strengthened and Playing Fast Ball.

Paris Here Today--Double-Header With Richmond Friday.

The Mt. Sterling Base Ball team will play at home nearly all of this week. Maysville played here Tuesday, but up to going to press we had not learned the score. Paris plays here today. Richmond plays a double-header here Friday and on Saturday Richmond will again cross bats with the Orphans.

Notwithstanding the home team has been greatly strengthened and is playing good ball they continue to lose. During the past week they have played a number of excellent games and but for bad luck would have won. Sunday they were defeated by Maysville in a hard-fought 11-inning game by the score of 5 to 4. Knight, a new man, pitched for the locals and pitched a splendid game.

Monday Maysville again defeated the locals by the score of 1 to 0, the winning run not being made until the last half of the ninth. Friedly pitched for Mt. Sterling and Sanford for Maysville.

Luck is sure to soon change and then look out for the Orphans.

Let's continue to pull hard for the home team and we will soon have a winner.

Let Sutton & Son furnish your home, then you will have the BEST. It will cost more elsewhere.

To Start Private School.

Mrs. J. W. Prewitt (nee Miss Pearl Bruton) has rented the R. L. Mrs. Prewitt is well known to the people of this city and county, having taught a private school here several years ago. MARRIED AT EUSTIS

Stuart McCormick and Miss Frances L. Igou Surprise Friends.

Groom Is the Youngest Son of Mr. Jno. L. McCormick, This City.

The following announcement from The Eustis Lake Region will be of interest to many of our readers, Mr. McCormick having a large circle of relatives and friends who will wish the young couple the happiness and prosperity they so richly deserve:

"The residence of Hon. W. M. Igou was the scene of one of the prettiest home weddings last Tuesday night that it has ever been our pleasure to witness.

"The rooms were beautifully decorated with asparagus ferns, ivy, palms, potted ferns and roses. Only a few young friends of the bride and groom were present.

"Promptly at the hour, 9 o'clock, Mrs. Irving Miller, who presided at the piano, began the wedding march from Lohengrin. The groom with his best man, Mr. Carl L. Ferran, stepped into the parlor from the side, and the bride on the arm of her brother, who gave her away, entered through the hall, preceded by Miss Willie Igou, maid of honor, who was tastily dressed in white and carried a large and beautiful bouquet of white roses. The bride and her brother advanced to the bower of ferns at the further side of the room, the groom stepped forward and took her arm, then Dr. L. M. Stevens asked those solemn questions, pledging their lives, one to the other, for good or ill, so long as they should live; the groom slipped the ring on the finger of the bride as the token which sealed his troth and Dr. Stevens pronounced them man and wife, closing the ceremony with prayer, in which he asked the divine blessing to attend the happy union, granting them long and useful lives here on earth and a final gathering in the heavenly home above.

"Congratulations followed and the guests were ushered out upon the wide and spacious porches, where they were daintily served with cake and cream. Delicious fruit punch was also served in the dining room.

"The bride was dressed in a handsome white chiffon trimmed with shadow lace, and carried a beautiful bouquet of bride's roses and lily of the valley. The groom was attired in the conventional black.

"The bride came here a few years ago with her mother from Cleveland, Tenn., and since the mother's death has made her home with her brother. She is a young woman of sweet and loving disposition, with a large circle of friends, while the groom is the son of J. L. McCormick, of Mt. Sterling, Ky., who with his parents have been winter residents in our city. Mr. McCormick is a man of energy and ability and is one of the young business men of our town. The wedding presents were very beautiful and consisted of silverware, cut glass, delicate china and linen.

"The following morning the bridal party boarded the train at Mt. Dora for a short wedding journey. Upon their return they will be at home corner of Magnolia avenue and Dewey street. Their many friends extend to them their best wishes for a happy and prosperous life."

COUNCIL RESTRAINED

From Accepting Work of The L. W. Hancock Company.

Matter to Be Tested in Courts By Citizens.

Last Friday several citizens met in the County Court room and determined to test in the courts the question of whether or not the brick street work recently done by The L. W. Hancock Company comes up to the specifications and contract. Legal talent was secured and Saturday a test suit was filed by Jno. W. William, B. F. Cockrell, J. F. Reynolds and others restraining the Mayor and City Council from accepting the work. The petition alleged that the work was faulty in many particulars and that the plaintiffs were informed that the Mayor and City Council were about to accept the work, notwithstanding the alleged defects. Under the terms of the restraining order, no action can be taken until the order is dissolved, and until the litigation is determined, the L. W. Hancock Company will receive nothing.
